

Guide for Photo Critique

Name _____

Per# _____

1. What is the focal point of the work?
2. What choices did the artist make to emphasize the focal point and direct the observer's eye?
3. What techniques of composition are present within the work, site evidence.
4. What elements of the work make it unique and interesting?
5. What would you do differently if you were the artist of this work? Explain your choices.
6. Theorize what the message of the work is, site evidence to support your theory.
7. If you were asked to create a new artwork, using this work as inspiration, what would you create?